PORT PIRIE > CLARE > KADINA

APRIL 2018

Welcome to our April Edition of the Yorke and Mid North Disability Workforce Hub Newsletter!

March was a busy month for our Disability Workforce Hub. Some of the events, meetings and activities included

- Attendance at the National NDIS Provider Forum which provided updates on the Participant and Provider Pathway Review, the implementation of the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission and an update on the Independent Pricing Review
- Attendance at the 'Learnings for the NDIS Study Tour'. Late last year, a number of South Australian service providers participated in an NDIS Study Tour. They traveled to the first pilot sites of the NDIS in New South Wales and Victoria, which had been operating in the NDIS market for up to four years. The Learning from the Tour provided the opportunity to hear key insights and learnings from the Study Tour, which include:
 - technology and innovation
 - workplace culture and philosophy
 - internal and external operating environments.

Presentation from the NDIS Study Tour - key learnings event on 8 March 2018

- March has seen the completion of the Simplifying Self Employment project which assisted a total of 15 participants across Port Pirie & Kadina to undertake 5 accredited units, providing them with the skills and knowledge to start up their own businesses within an NDIS / Disability environment
- Facilitation of the first NDIS Community Information Pop Up Stall which provided members of the public an opportunity to grab some information and have a chat with a local service providers to get their questions answered. The hub would like to say a thankyou to the below organisations who volunteered there time and supported the pop-up stall, and a big thankyou to those of you who also offered (with a little coaching!) to speak to the local news team :)

DISABLED AUSTRALIAN APPRENTICE WAGE SUPPORT PROGRAM

Have you considered employing an Apprentice or Trainee within your business?

Disabled Australian Apprentice Wage Support Program is a payment that assists employers of eligible Australian Apprentices with disabilities.

Disabled Australian Apprentice Wage Support payments are made to employers who:

- employ an eligible Australian apprentice with a disability who finds it difficult to get an approved apprenticeship because of his or her disability
- currently employ an Australian apprentice who has acquired a disability during his or her apprenticeship and needs help as a result.

Tutorial, interpreter, and mentor services are available to Australian apprentices who have been assessed as eligible for Disabled Australian Apprentice Wage Support and need extra help with their off-the-job training.

Find out more information about support and funding available here.

SUPPORTING PEOPLE WITH DISABILITY SEEKING WORK

Australians with a disability will be better supported in their search for a job. The Turnbull Government announced a new round of offers to organisations seeking to be providers of Disability Employment Services (DES) from 1 July 2018. The new panel of providers for DES will support people with disability to find and keep work with a greater emphasis on providers achieving employment outcomes. Minister for Social Services Dan Tehan said the Government will invest more than $3 billion into DES over four years, including an additional $300 million over the next 10 years.

"The new providers of Disability Employment Services will provide people with disability more choice and say in the support they receive as they look for work," Mr Tehan said.

For more information on the changes to the DES program, go to www.JobAccess.gov.au

NDIS PLANNERS (APS 4, APS 5, APS 6) AUSTRALIA WIDE

The National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) is an independent statutory Commonwealth agency. Our role is to implement the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS), which will support a better life for hundreds of thousands of Australians with a significant and permanent disability and their families and carers. The NDIS will mean peace of mind for every Australian - for anyone who has, or might acquire, a disability.

Working for the NDIA means you have the opportunity to contribute to building a new Commonwealth agency from the ground up. The NDIA is still growing and creating its own identity while developing new and innovative programs for our employees and the Australian community we serve.

The NDIA has a strong culture, driven by passion for the work we do and commitment to supporting people with disability to achieve greater independence. Our people are pioneering the management and delivery of the NDIS. We also aim to be world leaders in accessibility and inclusion, the employment of people with disability and people with culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.

The idea of people with disability being supported to live an ordinary life is central to the work of the NDIS. Through reasonable and necessary supports, the NDIS is helping people live a life with the basic opportunities many Australians take for granted.

We are now seeking to fill a range of expected or future ongoing and non-ongoing APS4 to APS6 Planners and Senior Planner roles in a range of sites across ACT, NSW, NT, QLD, SA, TAS & VIC. Please review the position description for a more in depth list of sites with possible vacancies and note not all roles will be available in each location.

MANAGER SUPPORT SERVICES

Reporting to the Chief Executive Officer, the Manager Support Services is an integral part of the team at SA Country Carers. The person we are looking for has experience in leading a small team and both an understanding of the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) and an overall understanding of the vital services SA Country Carers provides to the local community. Full details and how to apply available here:

NDIA ACCEPTS INDEPENDENT PRICING REVIEW RECOMMENDATIONS

Posted on 02 March 2018

The Board of the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) today released the Independent Pricing Review (IPR) Report undertaken by McKinsey & Company, giving in principle support to all of the Report's 25 recommendations.

Key recommendations made by the IPR include:

- Adding a third tier to the complexity loading to account for higher level skills or experience of workers and additional training required;
- Allowing providers to charge up to 45 minutes of travel time in rural areas;
- Allowing providers to quote on the delivery of services in isolated regions;
- Changing the cancellation policy to allow providers to recover 90% of their costs if a cancellation is made after 3pm on the day before the service;
- Removing the annual $1000 travel cap for therapy supports and aligning the travel policy with the attendant care travel policy;
- Changing therapy prices to better reflect different therapy types, and introducing a second tier of pricing for therapy assistants;
- Introducing temporary overhead assistance equivalent to a 2% to 3% loading on the price for providers delivering attendant care for the next 12 months.

Other recommendations relate to price limits, interventions to address specific market challenges, and improvements in market monitoring and engagement. Find out more about the IPR.

GRANTS & FUNDING

SMALL GRANTS FOR RURAL COMMUNITIES IS NOW OPEN

Grants available to support rural communities where they need it most

More than $350,000 available

The Foundation for Rural and Regional Renewal (FRRR) is again offering grants to support rural, regional and remote communities where they need it most.

This is the 33rd round of FRRR's Small Grants for Rural Communities (SGRC) program, and more than $350,000 is available in grants of up to $5,000 to enable local not-for-profit groups to implement projects and activities that strengthen their communities. Priority is given to projects in communities of 10,000 people or fewer.

Full details and eligibility criteria available here.

The Department for Communities and Social Inclusion (DCSI) has simplified access to four of its grant programs; The Charitable and Social Welfare Fund, Multicultural Celebrating Diversity one-off grants, Volunteer Training grants and Volunteer Support Fund. Grants SA will provide $3 million of one-off funding to community organisations in 2017-18 to support local projects that strengthen communities across South Australia.

Funds will be distributed through major, medium and minor funding rounds. Major grants of $20,001 to $50,000 will be open twice a year, medium grants of $5,001 to $20,000 will be open four times a year and minor grants of up to $5,000 are open all year round and applications close on the last day of every month.
